

Dinner and Dance at Piping Rock for Bridal Party

Entertainment in Advance of
To-day's Reynolds-Fletcher
Wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Fletcher gave a dinner and dance last night at the Piping Rock Club for their daughter, Miss Jean Fletcher, and Mr. Harrison Gardner Reynolds, who will be married this afternoon in St. John's Chapel, Locust Valley, L. I.

There were two tables, at one of which Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher had with them Mr. and Mrs. Philip M. Reynolds, parents of the bridegroom-elect, and several of their friends, who have country places near by.

At the other table with Miss Fletcher and her fiancé, were Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Fletcher, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Seth Lo, Mr. and Mrs. Artemus Gates, Mr. and Mrs. H. Nelson Slater, Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Coulter, Mrs. H. W. Wilson, Miss Sullivan, Miss Susanah Wood, Miss Marie E. Lamarche, Miss Barbara Reynolds, Messrs. Amory Coolidge, Henry B. Cabot, Jr., Hewitt Morgan, Francis M. Weld, Charles Higgins, Harold Amory, Ross T. Whistler, Court Amory, Jr., Graham B. Blaine, Edward Reynolds, Jr., Homer L. Sweetser and James C. White. After dinner other guests arrived for the dance.

As St. John's Chapel is small the guests for the ceremony to-day will be confined to relatives and intimate friends and those from New York will leave on a special train from the Pennsylvania Station shortly before 10 o'clock. The bride and groom will be met at the reception at The Willows, the country place of Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher in Glen Cove.

Cake 50 Years Old for Durstine Golden Wedding

Portions of Marriage Feast
Served at Montclair
Celebration.

Special Dispatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD.
MONTCLAIR, N. J., Sept. 29.—Dr. and Mrs. Frank H. Durstine, formerly of Cleveland, Ohio, celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of their wedding on Thursday evening of last week at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Fred S. Hartman of 163 Montclair avenue. Dr. and Mrs. Durstine were married in Ann Arbor, Mich., where the former was attending the university. Mrs. Durstine's maiden name was Mary Henlon. For more than forty years Dr. Durstine was engaged in the practice of medicine in Cleveland.

Three years ago the couple came to Montclair. Congratulatory letters and gifts were received from friends all over the United States and Canada.

An interesting feature of the evening was the singing of a golden wedding song by the four grandchildren of Dr. and Mrs. Durstine. The song was sung at the golden wedding of Dr. Durstine's parents by their grandchildren twenty-five years ago. It was composed by Dr. Durstine especially for the occasion.

An unique feature of the occasion was a composite historical cake. This cake, in addition to the usual ingredients, contained small portions of Dr. and Mrs. Durstine's original wedding cake, their fifteenth and twenty-fifth anniversary cakes, the wedding cake of all their brothers and sisters and also the wedding cake of the golden wedding of Dr. Durstine's parents.

Among those attending the golden wedding besides Mrs. Hartman, two other daughters, Miss Lillian Durstine of Montclair and Mrs. E. J. Owen of Detroit and a brother of Dr. Durstine, Lee B. Durstine of New York, who was present at the wedding fifty years ago. Others present were Mrs. G. Reale, Prof. and Mrs. Durstine of Cleveland, Ohio, brother-in-law and sister, and two cousins, Lee and Harris Hartman of New York.
